This version's lyrics below
Sung with respect by the Morryston Orpheus Choir, Abertawe.

Geiriau/ lyrics:

Sunset glow fades in the west.
Night o'er the valley is creeping.
Birds cuddle down in their nest
Soon all the world will be sleeping.

And now is the hour
When we must say goodbye.
Soon you'll be sailing
Far across the sea.

While you're away
Oh, please, remember me.
When you return
You'll find me waiting here.

While you're away
Oh, please, remember me.
When you return
You'll find me waiting here.

When you return
You'll find me waiting here.

"Now Is the Hour" is a popular song, though often described as a traditional Māori song, the english lyrics are by Clement Scott, an Australian. It is usually credited to Clement Scott, Maewa Kaihau & Dorothy Stewart.
